IN THE PARSI CHIEF MATRIMONIAL COURT AT BOMBAY

SUIT NO.6 OF 2004

Virafdali Mohta.....Plaintiff No.1

Versus

Jennifer Viraf Mohta.....Plaintiff No.2

Mr. Z.D. Sahukar i/b. Ms. Freny H. Ponda for the Plaintiff Nos. 1 and 2.

CORAM: F.I. REBELLO, J.
DATE : 25th October,2004

P.C.:

1. This is a suit for divorce by mutual consent. Neither of the parties are present. However, learned Counsel produces original true copy of an order passed by the Superior Court of New Jersey dissolving the marriage between the parties. In the light of that the presence of both the parties is dispensed with.

2. Considering the averments in the plaint and the decree for divorce already obtained under the Laws of U.S.A. this would be a fit case to grant the relief as prayed for. In the light of that suit decreed in terms of prayer clause (a). Decree be drawn up accordingly.
